

Across

2. lifestyle that involves making healthy choices daily (healthy living)
5. breast screening (mammogram)
6. measures or taken to promote health and prevent disease (preventive health care)
9. variable associated with an increased risk of disease or infection. (risk factor)
10. process whereby a person is made immune or resistant to an infectious disease (immunization)

Down

1. test for cervical cancer in women (pap smear)
3. tests or exams that look for disease or illness prior to symptoms (health screenings)
4. act of stopping something from happening (prevention)
7. physical activity that is done to become stronger and healthier (exercise)
8. preventive inoculation or chemical (often a weakened bacteria or virus) which stimulates antibodies and improves immunity to a disease (vaccination)